Metrosexual space

Where do metrosexual men-about-town go to make the most of their masculinity? Glasshouse, of course, the slick new Cape Town space that is all about male grooming and beautification. From waxes (hairy backs are unforgivable these days) to manicures, pedicures and facials, it's all available here. Thankfully it's the absolute antithesis to the girlie lair – plasma screens and aged whiskies on ice take care of that. The Foundry, 74 Prestwich Street, Green Point.
